Knights of Columbus Saints Peter & Paul Council #11337

JUNE 2021

Grand Knight's Message:

Dear Brothers:

As I write this, the Government has loosened restrictions and we are now in phase 1 which means 15% (120) of us can now attend Mass in person daily, without reservation and on Saturday and Sunday by reserving a spot at <http://peterandpaul.church> or by phone, by calling the Church. We are blessed that Rev. Father Mario has been and will be Celebrating Mass on line; you will be able to watch it on Facebook or You Tube, just go to <http://peterandpaul.church> and follow the links, this is also where you can register to attend Mass in person.

As the number of individuals being vaccinated increases substantially, let us pray that the Government will decrease restrictions so that we can get back to our new normal.

At our last month's General Membership meeting we held our election of officers for the next fraternal year and I would like to thank all of the brothers that stepped up and ran for the many available positions on our executive; we are lucky to have so many brothers that are willing to get involved I would also like to thank the Brothers who had the confidence in me to run the Council for 1 more year. I am confident this will be an exciting year and we will be able to accomplish lots once restrictions are removed and things open up.

Our Council has started a new initiative of praying the Rosary every Thursday evening over Zoom at 8:00 PM; check your inbox for my invitation to all of you to join us. If you would like to take part in reading or responding to any of the mysteries, please let me know. I would like to thank Brother Mark Jennings for his hard work in preparing the slides that we use for the Rosary.

June we will hold our last General Membership meeting for the fraternal year and God willing I hope to be able to see you all in person at our September general membership meeting.

As I end my message for June, I hope and pray that you and your family are well and have not been affected by this Pandemic.

If you know of any Brother or member of his family that is sick or in distress, please let me know.

Stay safe, Thank you and God Bless

Financial Secretary's Report:

Hi Brothers:

History of Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is popularly associated with St. Margaret Mary Aloccoque, a nun of the Visitation Order who during the years 1673-1675 who received a number of private revelations through which Our Lord chose to reveal His Most Sacred Heart to the world. 'My divine Heart is so inflamed with love for mankind ... that it can no longer contain within itself the flames of its burning charity and must spread them abroad by your means.' In the course of these apparitions Our Lord had St. Margaret Mary ask that a Feast in honour of His Sacred Heart be offered to Him by the Church on the Friday after the Solemnity of Corpus Christi; that the King consecrate France to the Sacred Heart, and that the mission of propagating the devotion be entrusted to the Order of the Visitation, as well as the Society of Jesus, better known as the Jesuit Order. St. Margaret Mary was assisted by St. Claude de la Colombière, a Jesuit priest who was her spiritual director. From Paray-le-Monial, the site of the apparitions, the devotion has spread throughout the world; and since then, the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has been a source of strength and consolation especially in times of persecution. As with hope we look to an end to the lockdown measures that have caused so much harm to society and to the practice of the faith, especially as it concerns the celebration and reception of the sacraments, this devotion can serve as a source of renewal of faith and life to God's glory and the salvation of souls.

The Nine First Fridays Devotion is by far the most common expression of devotion to the Sacred Heart. In the course of His apparitions to St. Margaret Mary, Our Lord made twelve promises to those who practise this devotion. The last of these promises states: 'I promise you in the excessive mercy of my Heart that its all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on nine first Fridays of consecutive months the grace of final repentance; they will not die under my displeasure or without receiving their sacraments, my divine Heart making itself their assured refuge at the last moment'. In addition to Holy Mass and Communion, the faithful who observe this devotion also participate in a Holy Hour of Reparation and Exposition and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament and the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart in their homes.

Sadly, as with many other traditional practices, this devotion was eclipsed in the aftermath of the Second Vatican Council. As with many post-conciliar developments that contradicted the very texts of the Council's documents, it may come as a surprise to many that in 1965, as the Council was coming to a close, Pope Paul VI exhorted the Catholic faithful to deeper devotion to the Sacred Heart: This, therefore, seems to us to be the most suitable ideal: that devotion to the Sacred Heart which, we say it sadly, has declined somewhat in some, now re-flourish daily more and more, and be esteemed by all as an excellent and acceptable form of true piety, which, in our times, especially because of the norms laid down in the Second Vatican Council, is strongly called for toward Christ Jesus, the king and centre of all hearts... We especially desire ... that through a more intense participation in the august Sacrament of the Altar, a greater devotion be given to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, whose outstanding gift is the Eucharist” (Pope Paul VI, Investigabiles Christi, Feb. 6, 1965). Near the very end of his turbulent pontificate, on October 13, 1977, on the 60th anniversary of the apparitions, Pope Paul VI observed: The tail of the devil is functioning in the disintegration of the Catholic World. The darkness of satan has entered and spread throughout the Catholic Church even to its summit. Apostasy, the loss of the faith, is spreading throughout the world and into the highest levels within the Church. These are very sobering words spoken by a pope. A few years earlier, he had made an even more sobering, often-quoted observation: We believed that after the Council would come a day of sunshine in the history of the Church. But instead there has come a day of clouds and storms and of darkness of searching and uncertainties...It is as if from some mysterious crack, no it is not mysterious, from some crack the smoke of satan has entered the temple of God (Sermon of June 29, 1972).

In view of the weakened state of the Church everywhere on account of the restrictions imposed on sacred worship by the pandemic lockdown, the scheduled reopening of churches at least in Ontario on June 14th, the Feast of the Sacred Heart, observing this Feast, preferably in church but even at home, may serve as a springboard for spiritual renewal after so long an absence from Holy Mass and reception of the Sacraments. It is possible in a sense, to pick up where we left off during Eastertide and renew our commitment to faithful discipleship by contemplating the Sacrifice of Our Lord on Calvary. On Good Friday, in the reading of the Passion according to St. John, these words were heard: One of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water (Jn. 19:34). The spirituality of the Sacred Heart of Jesus recognizes the profound spiritual and mystical significance in this incident in Our Lord’s Passion. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water (Jn. 19:33-34). To emphasize the significance of what had taken place, St John adds, He who saw it has borne witness – his testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth – that you also may believe (Jn. 19:35). The preface of the Mass of the Sacred Heart of Jesus fittingly summarizes the spiritual and sacramental significance of an incident that witnesses to the bitterness of Our Lord’s Passion and to the Church’s sacramental economy and the sacrificial nature of the Mass: For raised up high on the Cross, he gave himself up for us with a wonderful love and poured out blood and water from his pierced side, the wellspring of the Church’s Sacraments” (Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, The Roman Missal).

Whenever we celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the Lamb’s High Feast, we are drawn to the Heart of Jesus. Jesus, our Good Shepherd who lays down His life for us is the food for our journey. He is the way and our life for life comes through devoutly receiving the Body and Blood of Christ. ‘Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life.... He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him’ (Jn. 6:53-56). This mutual indwelling which is ours through the reception of the Sacraments and most especially the Holy Eucharist is the desired goal of our life both here on earth and in eternity – a participation in God’s own life a share in the divine nature.

As noted, in a time of His own choosing, Our Lord revealed His Most Sacred Heart to St. Margaret Mary, a humble nun of the Order of the Visitation, for the Lord guides the humble in what is right and teaches them his way (Ps. 25:9). He instructed her that with the help of St. Claude de la Colombière, whom Our Lord called His faithful and perfect friend, she should make known the treasures of His Sacred Heart. It is in the Sacred Heart of Jesus that we already abide by virtue of Our Lord's human nature. His Heart, substantially united to the Word of God, expresses the central Mystery of our faith, the Redemptive Incarnation. God has become man so that we might share in God's own life. In the twelve promises that our Lord made to St. Margaret Mary He said, 'I will bless every place where a picture of my Heart shall be set up and honoured'. Ideally, it is best to honour our Lord's Sacred Heart in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. However, since Our Lord assures us that He will bless every place where a picture of His Heart is honoured, His image should grace our homes and especially our churches and oratories. Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is a most effective means of living always in the company of Our Lord Jesus whom we receive in Holy Communion. In other words, our devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is an extended act of love for Him who shows us the greatest possible love by offering His Body and Blood for us in the Eucharistic Sacrifice (Raymond L. Cardinal Burke). Enthronement of the image of the Sacred Heart in the home is a central aspect of this devotion. By the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart, we link the tabernacle of our parish church to our home, inviting Our Lord to be our constant and most intimate companion. The Enthronement is a way of life. It means that Christ is King of our hearts, and we desire Him to be present with us always.

The gospels contain some key texts, easily memorized, that can help us to be mindful of this devotion and practice it in a manner that enables us to grow in charity and in holiness. 'Come to me all you who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me for I am gentle and lowly in heart. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light' (Mt. 11: 28-30). It is very significant that this is what Our Lord enjoins on all His disciples. These two virtues of humility and gentleness are all that we need in the face of any trial or difficulty. Humility is truth and only the truth can set us free. As for gentleness, it is both the fruit of humility and its indispensable ancillary. These enable us to dispose our own hearts in attitudes of adoration, reparation, atonement, love and empathy. One of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water (Jn. 19:34). The manner in which the wellspring of the Church's Sacraments first began to flow speaks to us of the manner of God's saving grace. God hastens to save us; and He comes quickly, immediately, gently, lovingly. The immediacy of His saving grace compels us to imitate Him also in the manner of His coming to our aid, for it can be said that we are saved by our adverbs. As we celebrate this Feast after so long an absence from our churches, may we resolve to listen to God's word attentively; receive His Body reverently; worship Him truthfully; love Him passionately; serve Him generously; and adore Him humbly and devoutly. So generous and so passionate a love made manifest in Christ and revealed in the Sacred Heart of the Saviour can only be reciprocated by an equally ardent love. Cor ad cor loquitur. Heart speaks to heart. This is how we can best understand and appreciate the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a devotion that expresses the central Mystery of the Redemptive Incarnation; a mystery that we profess, celebrate, live and pray in a dynamic of progressive identification with God Himself through grace and love.

The Pierced One upon whom we gaze, draws us to His Sacred and Wounded Heart, the fullest expression of God's love for humanity and as if in a mirror, we also look to the Heart of Jesus as the expression of all that we are called to be by virtue of our Christian discipleship; men and women whose own hearts, though often wounded by sin and its consequences, are nevertheless places of consolation, reparation, and healing for others. In the Heart of Jesus, we encounter the God who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God (2 Cor. 1:4).

Jesus meek and humble of Heart; make my heart like unto Thine. This simple yet profound prayer expresses in a manner that all can easily understand the purpose of all our prayers, works and sufferings. Simple prayers often express the very essence of our Christian faith. Those who endeavour to practice the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus endeavour to conform their hearts to the Heart of the Saviour. The pierced Heart of Jesus is a complete summary of our Christian faith. Those who follow Jesus, Way, Truth and Life along the path of devout discipleship understand quite simply, that Christian life is a progressive identification with the life of Jesus. The devotion to the Sacred Heart assists us in this effort and we become one with Him in His saving mission. With Him we cooperate in working out our own salvation, and we journey with Him into the Mystery of the Redemption which He brought about through His Passion, Death and Resurrection.

To return to the history of this devotion, Our Lord's request for the consecration of France was refused by King Louis XIV, the Sun King as he was known. This refusal resulted in much suffering not only for France but indeed, for the whole world. The collapse of the moral order and the secularism unleashed by the French Revolution would, in time, wreak havoc on the French nation and subsequently on those nations and societies like our once Christian nation, that have either violently or stealthily implemented the revolutionary program. Our own struggles with the overreach of the state and the health dictatorship have their origin in the errors of the French Revolution. The horrors and terror of political atheism, first unleashed in France have ravaged many nations and have also caused world wars. Wherever and whenever primacy of God and His law is supplanted by the rebellious will of man and the will to power, there is only death and destruction.

In 1875, two hundred years after the apparitions of Our Lord to St. Margaret Mary, construction of the Basilica of the Sacred Heart began in Montmartre in Paris, as an act of national reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. These words are inscribed in the dome of the basilica: Christo Eiusque Sacratissimo Cordi Gallia Poenitens et Grata et Devota; To Christ and His Most Sacred Heart from France, Penitent, Grateful and Devoted. Man's disobedience however tragic in itself and in its consequences, can never overwhelm God's plan of salvation for His own designs shall stand for ever; the plans of his heart from age to age (Ps. 33).

In our certain hope in Divine Providence, may the Feast of the Sacred Heart this year inspire us to pray and to work for the establishment of the social Kingship of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It begins first and foremost in the intimacy of our own hearts. Cor ad cor loquitur. Then, in union with others who share our love for and devotion to Our Lord's Most Sacred Heart and His mercy for humanity we resolve to adore, to imitate and to repair. The Heart of Our Saviour is the King and centre of all hearts, fount of life and holiness, source of all consolation and delight of all the saints (Litany of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus).

And on the lighter side:

I used to get heartburn when I ate birthday cake until a doctor advised me to take the candles off first.

Bonnie Tyler has released a video all about cardiology. It's totally clips of the heart.

If you steal someone's heart, do you get cardiac arrested?

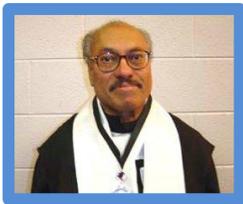

Did you hear about the cardiologist who went to great lengths to win the heart of a hematologist?

It was all in vein!

I heard about a football player who had a heart attack and collapsed on top of his opponent.

He was dead on a rival.

Chancellor's Report

Dear Brother Knights:

I hope you and your families are all well, keeping safe and enjoying the beautiful weather!

As we come to the end of our Fraternal Year, I would like to thank the current officers under the leadership of our Worthy Grand Knight, Sir Knight Fernando Greco, for all their efforts they have made, in making our meetings and events a success which was made more challenging by the spread of the Covid-19 virus.

I congratulate the members of the new Executive selected to lead us under the guidance of Grand Knight Fernando Greco, in the new Fraternal Year commencing July 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022, and I encourage all the members to give them your support, to make this year a successful one, as we are hoping and praying that the virus will soon go away, as more people get vaccinated.

June is the month of the Sacred Hearts, where we honour the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and we also honour all Fathers. June 20 is Father's Day.

A Prayer for Fathers

Almighty God, you have taught us that you are the Father of us all and that all fatherhood takes its origin from you. You protect us from evil and provide our daily bread. You are strength and integrity, blessing and the font of life.

We thank you, then, for our fathers. Though human, they are also a reflection of you, Lord God. They are your gift to us. We pray for all fathers today. May they realize the greatness of their vocation and have the strength to live it without fear. Forgive their sins and keep their eyes raised up to you.

To those who still make this earthy journey with us, give us the grace to love them as we should; and to those whom you have called from this life, give a special place of honor in the heavenly kingdom with you, the Father of all. Our Father (1), Hail Mary (1), Glory be to the Father (1)

In the meantime do keep safe and healthy.

St. Joseph, pray for us.

Fraternally,

SK Brother Joseph Rocha, PGK, PFN

Words from the Lecturer.

Hi Brother Knights,

I'm proud to make my first event report.

We were made aware of the event by our Chancellor, Bro. Dilly Nolasco.

The event was a 15 km Pilgrimage/Walk, starting from Dufferin & Rutherford (Vaughn) ending at Marylake Shrine, on Keele St. & 15th Sideroad (King City).

The event is called Knights of Columbus (10531) Pilgrimage to Marylake.

With a fundraising goal of $3,000.

My day started early, meeting the Brother Knights of St. Joseph the Worker Council 10531 at 7:30 AM, in a shopping plaza on Dufferin & Rutherford.

There were a good ten Brother Knights who greeted me, including their GK Mike De Medicis. There was also a group of a dozen ladies who joined for the walk.

A few jokes were made, with loud laughs, it was good fun before we started.

At 8am we started our walk...

I had my umbrella for the hot sun and if it rained.

I had a bag for my water and sunscreen.

So, with my sunglasses on and wearing my baseball cap, we started our walk.

Everyone quickly formed groups that matched walking pace.
I paired up with another brother Knight Leo, who was part of the hosting counsel.

The walk's weather was cool in the early morning, got slowly hotter as the day progressed.
But using my umbrella as a parasol helped keep the heat of the sun off me and was very lucky it never rained.

The walk itself consisted of walking through a suburb. Then after passing McDonald's and Walmart Plaza, it changed to an industrial zone.
The middle of the walk we were moving north bound on Keele, which had sporadic spots of walking on the road's shoulder until King City where it was mostly sidewalk.

It was a little passed noon when Bro. Leo and I reached the entrance of Marylake. We found a father and son, praying at the tall statue of the Holy Mary....
I didn't even have to tell Bro. Leo... We both took our hats off at the same time and said our own prayer, quietly to ourselves.
(This is a moment that I will always find special and always remember. It made feel very close to my faith.)

Bro. Leo and I found the registration table and gave our fees and sponsor money.

Close to the registration table, there were many picnic tables, all spread apart, seating the waiting families. A brother Knight cooking on the barbecue and two brothers serving.
They served hamburgers, hotdogs, two different pastas, potato salad, fruit salad, whole apples, whole bananas. I was spoiled!
And again, heard some good jokes and shared stories with fellow brothers.

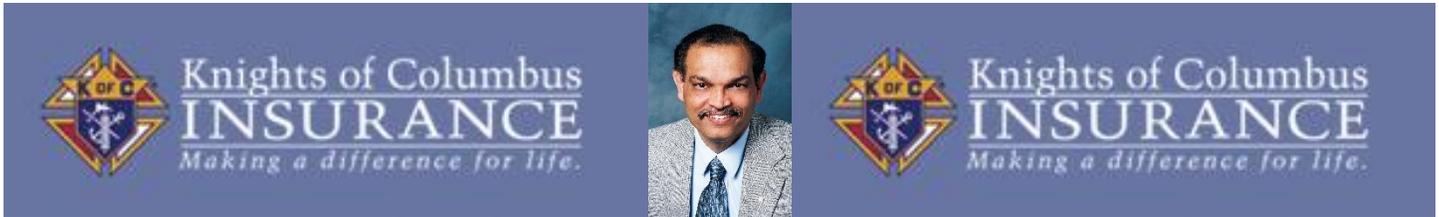

My day ended with Bro. Leo's family providing me a drive back to my car parked at Dufferin & Rutherford.

In closing... It was a great event.
It took me four hours and fifteen minutes to finish, at a slow pace.
We got lucky with the weather, and it was a great cause.
The goal was $3,000 but at the end of the picnic it was announced $10,000 was raised.

Vivat Jesus!

Members, please find our Facebook group:

As you sit around and consider all the things that you need to get updated, let me make a suggestion that may put your mind and your family's mind at ease. We know this year has been unpredictable in many ways, but let's be honest, pandemic or not, life is unpredictable. We can't see what the future will bring, but we can plan for the unexpected. Remember that as a member of the Knights of Columbus I am your partner on your journey to prepare for and face the unpredictable.

Just as we take stock of the physical changes that need to be considered, I'd suggest that you take stock of where you stand protecting your family. PRAYER TO BLESSED FATHER MICHAEL J. MCGIVNEY

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor, the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth, for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael, to the honours of the altar. We ask this favour through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother. Amen

PRAYER FOR THE CANONIZATION OF BLESSED MICHAEL MCGIVNEY

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbour. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling His commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in Your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that You glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of Your holy will. Through this intercession, grant the favour I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

OPENING ODE

SING YE HIS PRAISES LOUD AND LONG,
AND LET THE UNENLIGHTENED KNOW,
IN EV'RY ECHO OF YOUR SONG,
THE GREAT DEEDS DONE, THO' LONG AGO,
BY COLUMBUS OF THE VALIANT SOUL,
WHO FIRST OLD NEPTUNE HAS CONTROLLED,
DESPITE OF ENVY, INTRIGUE, GOLD,
IN THE DIM PAST OF LONG AGO.

WITH VESSELS THREE O'ER STORMY SEA,
HE THRILLED THE WORLD OF LONG AGO,
WHILE WISDOM LINKED WITH DESTINY,
IN JUSTICE SCALES ITS WEIGHT DID THROW.
WE ARE HIS HEIRS; WE WEAR HIS NAME;
WE BOAST HIS DEEDS; WE SPREAD HIS FAME;
OUR ORDER IS THE SHINING FLAME,
THAT LIGHTS THE GLOOM OF LONG AGO.

CANADIAN NATIONAL ANTHEM

O Canada!

Our home and native land!

True patriot love in all thy sons command.

With glowing hearts, we see thee rise,

The True North strong and free!

From far and wide,

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
