Knights of Columbus Saints Peter & Paul Council #11337

MAY 2021

Grand Knight's Message:

Dear Brothers

As I write this, we are still in a Government Stay-at-Home order and this lock down has now been extended till at least June 2nd. My hope is that you and you families are all doing well and have not been affected by this Pandemic. As the number of people getting vaccinated grows, the chances of going back to a somewhat new normal seems to get closer.

As you are all aware our Council held a diaper and baby wipes drive for Mothers Day in support of Birthright. I am happy to report that it was very successful given the circumstances and the Church being shut down due to Covid 19. I am glad to report that this past Friday May 14th, Brothers Dennis Crooks, Mike Bryce, Osaru Ogbomo, Ron Somasundaram, Dilbert Nolasco, Joaquim Faria, Natalie Meir and myself delivered: 8,423 diapers, 21,930 baby wipes, 4 cans of baby Formula, $145 in cash and a baby bottle to Birthright who was very appreciative of our donation.

I personally would like to thank Reverend Father Mario for his support and all who donated to this worthy cause at this time of need.

At our May General membership meeting we will be having our elections of officers for the next fraternal year; this is an opportunity for you to get involved in creating a path for the direction our Council will take and to make a difference in the next fraternal year and in the future. (Look for my Zoom meeting invite which will allow you to join our meetings). In the month of May our Council has started Praying the Rosary every Thursday evening using Zoom at 8:00 PM and we are hoping to carry on with this in the future also. (Look for my Zoom meeting invite which will allow you to join us to pray the Rosary). As I end my message for the month of May, my family and I would like to wish you all health and Happiness and Pray that you all stay safe. If you know of any Brother or member of their family who is sick or in distress, please let me know ASAP. Stay safe, Thank you and God Bless

Financial Secretary's Report:

Hi Brothers:

Reminder Notice Re annual dues

The protocol or rules as stated by Supreme are that Annual dues are to be paid by March of the current year and anyone not having a current membership card cannot be admitted to the general meeting. (A current membership card showing dues paid to December of the current year is issued upon receipt of dues)

Dues go into the general fund and are used for council expenses, State and Supreme expenses on a per capita basis and in some cases for charitable expenses where the expense does not fit in to the legal definition of charity payouts (e.g Kids Christmas Party.)

Again, if any member cannot meet this requirement, they can contact the GK or Financial Secretary or retention Committee Chair Brother Dennis in Confidence. Dues can be waived or reduced depending upon circumstances.

Continuation from April edition:

The Ten Most Common Misconceptions About Apparitions

Every day, it seems, the papers are splashed with another report of an angel appearing by a hospital bed, the Blessed Virgin's image showing up in a window screen, or the face of Christ appearing on yet another tortilla. Many Catholics find these reports embarrassing. But then there are sites like Lourdes and Fatima, places that nobody would have heard of except for the reports that Mary appeared there and conveyed messages of hope and repentance.

So what's the deal when it comes to reported apparitions? Arguments break out; accusations and contradictions are slammed back and forth by both sides. There are a lot of misconceptions and misunderstandings, no matter where you look or whom you listen to. Here are the numbers six to ten of the ten contenders.. Continuation from April edition..

6. People who don't bother with modern apparitions just aren't spiritually gifted enough to understand.

No, they're within their rights, and they're doing basically what the Church hopes people will do. Belief even in events like Lourdes and Fatima is only enjoined, never required. No such event is necessary for salvation or for the business of the Church; like Christ's own miracles, they only help bring people's attention back to the faith (John 3:1-21).

No latter-day apparition should be taken as the centerpiece of one's ideas about what religion is all about. That's because Christianity—a revealed religion—works with two different kinds of revelation. The revelation that came to us from Christ, through the prophets before him and the apostles after, is an unchanged body of teachings called the “deposit of faith,” and it's public revelation, so called because Christ said it was to be given to all nations (Matt. 24:14, 28:19; Mark 11:17, 13:10; Luke 24:47). It's the substance of our religion. Since the death of the last apostle, public revelation is closed. Everything that God needed to reveal about Christianity already has been revealed, so nothing needs to be added; Christ himself revealed it, so nothing has to be changed. “The Christian dispensation,” Vatican II repeated, “as the new and definitive covenant, will never pass away, and we now await no further new public revelation before the glorious manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

But there's also a phenomenon called private revelation. This is not part of public revelation, but just a reminder of some part of it, given by God, sometimes by way of an angel or a saint, to an individual person. It can be the answer to a simple prayer or a sky-splitting apparition—or anything in between. Whatever the form, it's not essential to the Faith. No genuine apparition is going to be anything other than private revelation; none will convey new or revised public revelation, so none is necessary to the substance of the Faith. You're supposed to take the reminder, if you need it, and then get to work increasing your devotion to public revelation.

That's why even spectacularly gifted saints can take apparitions or leave them. St. Louis IX of France looked up calmly when his servant burst into the room yelling about how Christ was appearing in the Eucharist in the palace chapel, and then the king turned back to his work. Sts. Margaret Mary Alacoque and Teresa of Avila went so far as to fight off their visions of Christ, begging him to leave them in the normal routine of their orders. If you stay at home when the next visionary claims that Mary is appearing in the backyard, you'll be in very good company.

7. Bishops encourage crowds to flock to any reported apparition, no matter how nutty it is. Just about the last thing any bishop looks forward to is that late-night call about yet another hometown visionary. His efforts will be directed at keeping things orderly until an investigation can be made—if in fact the report warrants investigation. Usually, the thing is so far outside the spectrum of genuine mystical activity that he'll respond only with silence, and silence from the local bishop is really a public proclamation that the thing deserves no notice. Even if it does turn out to be real, the most that any post-biblical apparition gets is a negative approval—an official declaration that there's nothing in the report or in its implications that's contrary to the Faith, so it's “worthy of belief.” That means that you can believe it or, if you aren't interested, not.

8. Bishops discourage people from flocking to any reported apparition, no matter how wonderful it is.

Wrong again. They know that only a tiny percentage of reports—maybe only one in a thousand, or really even fewer—turn out to have anything wonderful about them. To the average bishop, the overwhelming majority of reports are obviously, even blatantly fraudulent or delusional.

There is an immense amount of spiritual treasure in the messages of genuine apparitions, a lot that can deepen and enrich your life in the Church through the sacraments. But it's also true that fakes and delusional cases distract thousands of people from basic—and fully adequate—participation in those sacraments, and they draw them away from growing in the normal life of prayer. So the good of a real apparition is potentially overwhelmed by the evil from a myriad of fakes. Bishops have to be careful.

Those reports that have enough substance to merit official examination are studied by panels of qualified experts—theologians, medical doctors, perhaps chemists and physicists— assembled by the local bishop, the only person authorized by law to investigate. They take their time. Time weeds out empty promises, and it may take a century or more before a final determination is announced. In the meantime, follow the lead of King Louis or of John of the Cross, who just turned back to reading his Bible when his brother friars called him to run into town to see a purported apparition. Maybe he was looking at Matthew 12:38-39.

38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you."

39 He said to them in reply, "An evil and unfaithful generation seeks a sign, but no sign will be given it except the sign of Jonah the prophet."

9. If enough people go to see an apparition, the bishop will give it his blessing eventually.

A genuine apparition is an outreach by God. The reality of it is not determined by voting and most particularly not by the voting of people unqualified to evaluate the matter. We tend to forget that mystic theology is a regular academic discipline—you can get a doctorate in it at accredited Catholic universities. It's sobering but safe to remember that the layman on the street has no experience of genuine mystic activity, no book-learning about what it really is, and—judging by the numbers who flock after even the most preposterous reports—sadly insufficient knowledge about the basics of the faith. A little learning goes a long way toward winnowing out the nonsense. You'd be surprised how far it goes toward opening up the wonders of the apparitions that have been declared worthy of credit, wonders that are closed to people who rely on their emotions and won't make the necessary effort to grow in knowledge and discipline.

Most experts, undoubtedly, would just like to see a little more common sense in these things. Christianity does not change (Heb. 13:8-9), so certainly an apparition of a saint (Matt. 17:3) or an angel (Luke 1:11) is as possible today as it ever was. But there's no biblical reference for the appearance of anybody's face on a food item or flower petals. Lack of biblical precedent should be enough to turn anybody from the silliest reports, but there are also the writings of the great Doctors of the Church such as Teresa of Avila and John of the Cross, which ought to settle any doubts the laity is likely to have about the value of a given report, pending official judgment—or official silence.

By the way, continuing to fuss with a purported apparition that has been declared false by the local bishop is disobedience—a sin rooted in pride.

10. Apparitions can be photographed.

Nope.

And on a lighter side:

Some friars were behind on their belfry payments, so they opened up a small florist shop to raise the funds. Since everyone liked to buy flowers from the men of God, the rival florist across town thought the competition was unfair. He asked the good fathers to close down, but they would not. He went back and begged the friars to close. They ignored him. He asked his mother to go and ask the friars to get out of business. They ignored her, too.

So, the rival florist hired Hugh MacTaggart, the roughest and most vicious thug in town, to "persuade" them to close. Hugh beat up the friars and trashed their store, saying he'd be back if they didn't close shop. Terrified, the friars did so, thereby proving that . . .

Hugh, and only Hugh, can prevent florist friars.

Chancellor's Report

Dear Brother Knights,

I hope you and your families are all well and keeping safe.

The month of May is devoted to Our Lady. We recently honoured our mothers when we celebrated Mother's Day. This offers us an excellent opportunity to reflect on Mary's role and in our lives, and in the church today. While Knights are devoted to Mary under many different titles, we have long had a special devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe.

As a fraternity which spread to Canada, the Philippines and Mexico, within a generation of its founding in the United States, Mary, under the title Our Lady of Guadalupe is acclaimed the Patroness of the Americas and the Philippines, Star of the New Evangelization and Protectress of the Unborn.

As the days are getting longer, and the temperatures are getting warmer, it is tempting to go out and socialize, but remember that the lock down extends to June 2nd. Let us hope and pray that things will soon improve.

In the meantime, do keep safe and healthy.

St Joseph, pray for us.

Words from the Lecturer.

Hi Brother Knights,

Since we have been doing the Holy Rosary on Thursdays...

I thought it would be reminded of the 'Promises of Mary'

The Fifteen Promises of Mary
Granted to those who Recite the Rosary
The Glory of St Dominic
Guido Reni
1613 A.D.
Fresco
San Domenico, Bologna

The Blessed Virgin Mary promised to Saint Dominic and to all who follow that "Whatever you ask in the Rosary will be granted." She left for all Christians Fifteen Promises to those who recite the Holy Rosary.

Imparted to Saint Dominic and Blessed Alan

1. Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. The Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire for eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall not perish.
6. Whoever shall recite the Rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries shall never be conquered by misfortune. God will not chastise him in His justice, he shall not perish by an unprovided death; if he be just he shall remain in the grace of God, and become worthy of eternal life.
7. Whoever shall have a true devotion for the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
8. Those who are faithful to recite the Rosary shall have during their life and at their death the light of God and the plenitude of His graces; at the moment of death they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
9. I shall deliver from Purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in Heaven.
11. You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary.

12. All those who propagate the Holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
14. All who recite the Rosary are my sons and daughters, and brothers and sisters of my only Son Jesus Christ.
15. Devotion of my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

(FROM: <http://www.themostholYROsary.com/15promises.htm>)

I hope you enjoyed reading the promises and found a spark of inspiration in one or most of them. It's hard to remember them all so it's always good to be reminded.

Vivat Jesus!

P.S. Don't forget to join our Facebook group: Knights 11337
When the pandemic is over, I would like to use it for random get togethers...
Like grabbing coffee or a McD's lunch. It will give a platform for all of the members to exchange ideas.

Members, please find our Facebook group:

Spring is here, we have a new season and after a blessed Easter and a beautiful Eastertide, it's time to start planning again. With spring and the break in the weather, I've started to put together my honey-do list that will take me outside into the sunshine...at least I hope it's going to be sunny when I get outdoors to do all these chores. I don't know about you, but this time of year seems to energize me. After being cooped up all winter, and this year really being cooped up, I've been able to think of all the things I need to get done. Some of that includes physical repairs around the house, getting the lawn and flowerbeds ready to go, maybe even washing some windows.

Now when you get outside to get that work done, please, please be careful! I'm reminded of two acquaintances who were up on ladders in the spring. In both cases, the ladder slipped, and each gentleman sustained two broken arms! Out of commission for quite a while. But there are many hazards that can put you out of commission...and that brings me to the important part of my message this month. Protecting your greatest asset!

Your greatest asset is your ability to work and earn an income! Take your annual income (probably fresh in your mind) and multiply it times your remaining years of working. A 35 year old making $50,000 a year will earn $1.5 million in the next 30 years....if he never gets another raise! So you have lots to protect. But what if you're sick or hurt and can't work. Maybe it's something simple like the gents above...a set of broken arms. But one of my members laid his motorcycle down on his leg...off from work for two years! That's a lot of house payments to miss. Luckily, his disability income policy came to the rescue. It can happen to any one of us.

And disability does not discriminate; man or woman; Black, white, Hispanic or Asian; young or old. A 2014 CDA Long-Term Disability Claims Review had a number of notes: More than 1 in 4 of today's 20 year-olds will become disabled before they retire, 76% of us live paycheck to paycheck; less than 5% of all disabling accidents and illnesses are work related. That means 95% of those are not covered by Worker's Compensation. You're on your own 95% of the time. Turn to Social Security; but Social Security's report on SSDI says that only about 40% of applicants are awarded benefits. Couple that with 69% of the private sector workforce having no long-term disability income insurance and it's no wonder disabilities are the #1 cause of mortgage foreclosures.

So what to do? Let's get together and find out. Do you need disability income insurance? If so, how much? Maybe you have some at work...is it enough? Is it taxable? Is it the right kind? Let me suggest you put your mind and your family's mind at ease. Life is unpredictable, pandemic or not. Let's plan for the worst...but expect the best. We can't see what the future will bring, I'm here to help you plan for the unexpected. Let's make sure that if you or your spouse are sick or hurt and can't work, that your family can stay in the home you've provided, pay the utilities, buy groceries...make sure the basics are covered.

I look forward to meeting with many more of you in the months ahead whether virtually or face to face. Please contact me if you have any questions; I am here to serve you, my members, and your families.

Meanwhile, stay safe and healthy.
Vivat Jesus!

LET US PRAY THAT THOSE IN CHARGE OF FINANCE WILL WORK WITH GOVERNMENTS TO REGULATE THE FINANCIAL SPHERE AND PROTECT CITIZENS FROM IT'S DANGERS.

PRAYER TO BLESSED FR. MICHAEL J. MCGIVNEY

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor, the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth, for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael, to the honours of the altar. We ask this favour through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother. Amen

PRAYER FOR THE CANONIZATION OF BLESSED MICHAEL MCGIVNEY

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbour. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling His commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in Your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that You glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of Your holy will. Through this intercession, grant the favour I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE PERSEVERANCE OF VOCATIONS

O God, You have constituted Your only-begotten Son supreme and eternal Priest for the glory of Your majesty and the salvation of mankind: grant that those whom He has chosen ministers and dispensers of His mysteries may be found faithful in fulfilling the ministry they have received.

OPENING ODE

SING YE HIS PRAISES LOUD AND LONG,
AND LET THE UNENLIGHTENED KNOW,
IN EV'RY ECHO OF YOUR SONG,
THE GREAT DEEDS DONE, THO' LONG AGO,
BY COLUMBUS OF THE VALIANT SOUL,
WHO FIRST OLD NEPTUNE HAS CONTROLLED,
DESPITE OF ENVY, INTRIGUE, GOLD,
IN THE DIM PAST OF LONG AGO.

WITH VESSELS THREE O'ER STORMY SEA,
HE THRILLED THE WORLD OF LONG AGO,
WHILE WISDOM LINKED WITH DESTINY,
IN JUSTICE SCALES ITS WEIGHT DID THROW.
WE ARE HIS HEIRS; WE WEAR HIS NAME;
WE BOAST HIS DEEDS; WE SPREAD HIS FAME;
OUR ORDER IS THE SHINING FLAME, THAT LIGHTS THE GLOOM OF LONG AGO.

CANADIAN NATIONAL ANTHEM

O Canada!

Our home and native land!

True patriot love in all thy sons command.

With glowing hearts, we see thee rise,

The True North strong and free!

From far and wide,

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

We pray for the
Catholic Women's League of the Archdiocese of Toronto
as it celebrates 100 years of faithful service within the many parishes of the Archdiocese.
May God bless members
both past and present
for their years of dedicated service to the Church and grant them strength and guidance as they continue to serve God's people.
We pray to the Lord.
