SEPTEMBER 2021

MONTH OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS (MATER DOLOROSA)

Grand Knight's Message:

Dear Brothers:

As I write this, we are still in phase 3 which means 50% of us can now attend Mass in person daily and on Saturday and Sunday without reservations or screening, (but due to social distancing the actual number is 130). We are blessed that Rev. Father Mario has been and will be Celebrating Mass online; you will be able to watch it on Facebook or YouTube: just go to <http://peterandpaul.church> and follow the links. Reverend Father Mario has added a 4th Mass on Sunday and the Mass times have changed to 8:00 AM English, 9:30 AM Italian, 11:00 AM English and 12:30 PM English; 11:00 AM Mass is live streamed.

We are currently holding a food drive to support the Food bank in Peel for Thanksgiving. Your support with non-perishable food items will be greatly appreciated. Help us make this food drive a success and help us help those less fortunate.

As the number of individuals being vaccinated is increasing substantially, let us pray that the Government will soon remove all restrictions so that we can get back to our new normal.

On October 10th after the 12:30 PM Mass, we will be holding our installation of officers for this Fraternal year; please make an effort to attend and be part of the ceremony.

As a Council, we are starting to plan some in person functions for when all of the restrictions are removed. I will keep you informed as we get closer.

By now you are probably aware of Our Council's new initiative of praying the Rosary every Thursday evening over Zoom at 8:00 PM. Check your inbox for my invitation to all of you to join us; if you would like to take part in reading or responding to any of the mysteries, please let me know. I would like to thank Brother Mark Jennings for his hard work in preparing the slides that we use for the Rosary.

Our Council has been chosen by State to help promote the State 50-50 lottery draw. This replaces the State Lottery that they usually run every year and the draw is done quarterly with some early bird draws taking place monthly; the June 30th draw was over $45,000 dollars and as of this week the Jackpot for this quarter with just a few days remaining till the draw, is over $33,000, check out our website or Facebook page for more details and how to purchase tickets.

God willing, I hope to be able to see you all in person at our October meeting

As I end my message for September, I hope and pray that you and your family are well and have not been affected by this Pandemic.

If you know of any Brother or Member of his family that is sick or in distress, please let me know.

Financial Secretary's Report:

Hi Brothers:

SAINT TERESA'S DARK NIGHT

By

Father Mario Attard, OFM, Cap

September 5th is the feast of St Teresa of Calcutta, this year on a Sunday, but a few words may be in order, as she is truly a saint for our times. Mother Teresa's life has been marked by the great darkness. How much she felt that total silence from God!

This poignant internal suffering that no one could really understand, opened more her heart to confide to her spiritual director in 1957, the inner hell she was living in.

In the darkness . . . Lord, my God, who am I that you should forsake me? The child of your love — and now become as the most hated one. The one — you have thrown away as unwanted — unloved. I call, I cling, I want, and there is no one to answer . . . Where I try to raise my thoughts to heaven, there is such convicting emptiness that those very thoughts return like sharp knives and hurt my very soul. Love — the word — it brings nothing. I am told God lives in me — and yet the reality of darkness and coldness and emptiness is so great that nothing touches my soul.

In 1958 it seemed that Mother Teresa was capable of piercing in the darkness. This occurred during the Requiem Mass which was celebrated in the day following the death of Pope Pius XII. It was this pope who gave her the required permission to leave the Loreto Sisters, and immerse herself among the poor. She wrote: There and then disappeared that long darkness, that pain of loss, of loneliness, of that strange suffering of ten years. Today my soul is filled with love, with joy untold, with an unbroken union of love.

However, just four weeks later that darkness came on her with all its possible power. She said: He is gone again, leaving me alone. She could not express it much clearer and truer. In fact, from that time onward, till her last breath, Mother Teresa was to live in that utter darkness. Although she never wrote an explicit spiritual canticle that would detail her spiritual torments and feelings of abandonment by God, we may, from the letters we have that openly describe her deep spiritual anguish, depict a sort of a canticle regarding her dark night of the soul.

*I did not know that love could make one suffer so much . . .
of pain human but caused by the divine.*

The more I want him, the less I am wanted.

*I want to love him as he has not been loved,
and yet there is that separation, that terrible emptiness, that feeling of absence of God.*

They say people in hell suffer eternal pain because of the loss of God . . .

In my soul I feel just this terrible pain of loss,
of God not wanting me, of God not being God,
of God not really existing.

That terrible longing keeps growing, and I feel as if something will break in me one day.

Heaven from every side is closed.

I feel like refusing God.

Pray for me

that I may not turn a Judas to Jesus in this painful darkness.

Her honest and direct account of what she was suffering is an invaluable encouragement to those who, like her, are suffering so much in their hearts and spirits. What Mother Teresa can teach us when we too experience our existential Calvary, is to unite our suffering with that of Christ to the Father for the salvation of our world. To a priest who was always being scourged by his spiritual blackness she told him: In you, today, he wants to relive his complete submission to his Father. It does not matter what you feel, but what he feels in you . . . You and I must let him live in us and through us in the world. Mother Teresa could really be a sister and a mother to this priest because she too was immersed in her emptiness and poverty which, in turn, made her more united with the crucified Christ who offered himself to save us from our sins.

In her terrible suffering Jesus made Mother Teresa the faithful messenger of his Messianic mission. Through her Jesus said to the people of our time, harshly tested by loneliness, depression and all sorts of immense internal ordeal: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord (Luke 4:18-19). When you and I pass through our own spiritual darkness, let us be missionaries to persons who are broken-hearted, feel rejected and judged by the rest of their fellows. Perhaps, the following phrases taken from Mother Teresa's private letters can help us in our resolve to keep being, by God's grace, a total gift to Jesus in his suffering children. Thus, in this way, we can share in Jesus' Passion as well as in his burning thirst for their souls.

For my meditation I am using the Passion of Jesus.

I am afraid I make no meditation,

but only look at Jesus suffer and keep repeating,

Let me share with you this pain!

If my pain and suffering, my darkness and separation,

give you a drop of consolation, my own Jesus,

do with me as you wish.

I am your own.

Imprint on my soul and life

the suffering of your heart.

If my separation from you brings others to you . . .

I am willing with all my heart to suffer all that I suffer.

Your happiness is all that I want . . .

I have begun to love my darkness,

for I believe now that it is a part, a very small part,

of Jesus' darkness and pain on the earth.

I want to satiate your thirst

with every single drop of blood that you can find in me.

Please do not take the trouble to return soon.

I am ready to wait for you for all eternity.

St Teresa of Calcutta, saint of darkness, pray for us who are encircled by the suffering of the soul and spirit, to let Jesus make us missionaries of his mercy to those who feel alone, excluded, judged and condemned by others, especially to those living with us in our family and community. Amen.

And on the Lighter Side....

What did the nun say as she sat down at the sewing machine?

This could be habit forming.

A prisoner joined a convent and wanted to be a part of their marching band. What instrument did she decide to play?

It's a conundrum!

Mother Superior had to crack down on sisters wearing perfume in the convent.

She said she would not tolerate such nun scents.

Somebody kidnapped a Sister from our local convent because there was no security.

No fence. Nun taken.

Who do you call if something breaks down at a convent?

Maintain-nuns.

Chancellor's Report

Brothers,

As our children start a new school year, I ask you to join me in prayer for their protection against the snares and evil doings of the devil; that our Lord and Saviour may protect them from all illness.

Father, I thank You that You invite us into Your protection; that when we seek You and make You our God that You promise to command Your angels to watch over us (Psalm 91:9-12).

We pray now that You would protect Your children as they go throughout their days. Hem them in behind and before and lay Your hand upon them (Psalm 139:5). Do not let any harm come to them. Keep each of Your children safe beneath Your wings and guard them against any plots that are meant to harm or bring ruin to them. Be close to each of Your children, Lord, surround them with Your favor as with a shield (Psalm 5:11-12).

I pray You would protect them in all the ways they walk; in their coming out and their going in. Guard them against diseases of the mind and body, accidents, predators, and kinds of evil and evil doers. Anoint each of Your children with Your favor and protection, letting them rest safely between Your shoulders (Deuteronomy 33:12).

Father, as Your children walk through their days, I pray You would give them clear direction in doing Your will, so they may remain within Your protection. Give them wisdom to know when to shy away from potential harm, both physically and spiritually. Then help them courageously walk away from it. May the blood of Jesus ash over each of Your children, covering them as they walk through this day and every day of their lives.

In Jesus' mighty name, Amen.

In a special way, we also pray for those children in third world countries, that do not always have the luxury of attending school and receiving a formal education. That the Lord, guide their minds and their hearts, always and forever.

Stay safe Brothers and God bless.

The advertisement consists of three horizontal panels. The left panel shows the K of C logo and the text 'Knights of Columbus INSURANCE' with the tagline 'Making a difference for life.' in smaller letters. The middle panel is a portrait photo of Chancellor Dilbert Nolasco, a man with a beard and mustache, wearing a suit and tie. The right panel shows the same logo and text as the left.

Some events are the harbinger of the change in seasons: swallows returning to Capistrano, opening day for major league baseball, kids getting out of school for summer vacation (and then school shopping in August!), football season in the fall with Halloween and Thanksgiving and finally ending the year with a Christmas celebration.

One harbinger of September that has been like clockwork over the past number of years is our Knights of Columbus Fraternal Survey. It's my chance to stay in touch with you, see what's changed in your life and let you know I am here to be of service.

Just like last year the survey can be completed online; simple, fast and confidential.

I'm sure that as you look through the survey you might find a block to check; a subject you'd like some information on. Maybe you've been thinking about your life insurance and other benefits at work...are they adequate? Do I get to keep my group life insurance when I move to another job? Maybe you're thinking about a relative that's had a long term care event and all the agony and worry that entails. Maybe it's time to get serious about retirement.

Perhaps you have some products and you need service—a change of beneficiary or owner...or maybe you've moved and we need to update your contact information. Any of these can be addressed if you complete the survey.

In my travels around the area I often run into people who know the Knights of Columbus from our good works in the parish or community, our disaster response, support for Special Olympics and our prolife efforts. But very few of them know that we are a life insurance company...and we make no bones about that. After all Fr. McGivney saw that protecting our families was one of the two key reasons he brought those New Haven men together in the basement of St. Mary's in 1882.

"No doubt Father McGivney was motivated by the wish to keep young Catholics from entering the ranks of condemned secret societies and by the need to protect families during sickness and death." (Faith and Fraternalism, The History of the Knights of Columbus 1882-1982; Christopher J. Kauffman, pg.17)

Unite men of faith and protect your families. Our Order has been faithful to that mission for 139 years. With the beatification of Blessed Michael McGivney I feel a renewed zeal to invite men to join the Order to reap those benefits of Unity, Charity and Fraternity. I am just as zealous to help protect Catholic families. Tempus fugit, memento mori!

Vivat Jesu!

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael, to the honours of the altar. BY COLUMBUS OF THE VALIANT SOUL,
WHO FIRST OLD NEPTUNE HAS CONTROLLED,
DESPITE OF ENVY, INTRIGUE, GOLD,

WITH VESSELS THREE O'ER STORMY SEA,

OUR ORDER IS THE SHINING FLAME,
THAT LIGHTS THE GLOOM OF LONG AGO.
